

Environmental Health & Safety (EHS) Inspector

---

Description

Individual experienced in the shipyard industry with a discipline in environmental, health and safety.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Perform evaluation and testing in various environments including but not limited to noise, illumination, atmospheric conditions (confined spaces), ensuring proper working environments are established and maintained
- Work with the Project Team to identify and eliminate potential hazards
- Evaluates and coordinates the requirement for Marine Chemist required inspections
- Maintain records on inspections and tests
- Evaluate and document EH&S conditions on one or more projects through daily inspections
- Ensure all hazardous material documentation is submitted and maintained on one or more projects
- Coordinate hazardous waste disposal with facilities
- Provide training to small groups
- Actively participates in EH&S audits (internal and external)

Qualifications

- Minimum of 5 years of experience in the shipyard industry
- 24 Hour and 8 Hour Shipyard Competent Person training
- Possess thorough understanding of the EH&S requirements within the ship repair, in particular, the US Navy
- Must be a US citizen
- Must be able to access government installations
- Must be able to walk at least 2 miles daily, crawl in tight spaces, and climb ladders and stairs without restriction
- Must be able to lift 50 pounds above head
- Must pass an occupational physical, drug screen and respirator medical authorization test
- Must be able to work any assigned shift and ability to work assigned overtime
- OSHA 10 - Maritime, willingness to obtain through company-paid training