

Quality Assurance Inspector

Description

Individual experienced in the specialized field of marine coatings application and preservation, in the discipline of quality assurance and control

Duties and Responsibilities

- Oversees the quality requirements of one or more projects
- Reports directly to the Quality Assurance Manager
- Actively participates in quality audits (internal and external)
- Documents objective quality evidence on one or more projects
- Maintains the required project quality and preservation records on one or more projects
- Works with the Project Team to identify and determine conformance / non-conformance of the work accomplished
- Schedule and accomplish hold point inspections (internal and external)
- Ensure the required quality standards are met on one or more projects
- Possesses a thorough understanding of marine coatings application, in particular, US Navy and US Navy preservation requirements

Qualifications

- Minimum of 10 years of experience in the marine coatings industry
- Must be SSPC NBPI or NACE Level 1 Certified
- Possess thorough understanding of the quality assurance requirements within the ship repair, in particular, the US Navy
- Must be a US citizen
- Must be able to access government installations
- Must be able to walk at least 2 miles daily, crawl in tight spaces, and climb ladders and stairs without restriction
- Must be able to lift 50 pounds above head
- Must pass an occupational physical, drug screen and respirator medical authorization test
- Must be able to work any assigned shift and ability to work assigned overtime
- OSHA 10 - Maritime, willingness to obtain through company-paid training